New County Town and the "Gazette."

Last week we promised to have a word or two with our contemporary at Richmond Hill, in reference to his remarks about a suitable "site for the proposed County In order that our readers may underatand and properly consider what we may have to say on this point, it will be necessary for us to give such partions of our confreer's article as we may feel disposed to take exception to, and as will lead them to take an impartial view of both sides. The substance of the Gdzette's article is contained in the following two paragraphs. We have placed figures at the end of those centences to which we invite attention : our remarks snent the same will be found by referring to corresponding figures below :-

Richmond Hill occupies the most favorable position of any of the numerous villages suriconding Toronto. (1.) It is the highest land between the laker, and the most healthfully tucated. (2) But what is of greater value, and more importance still to its future prospects, is that it is the most central town in the County of York, and is surrounded by a fertile and rapidly improving country, not excelled in Canada. (3.) These peculiarities may for a time be k-pt in abeyance; but, ultimately they can not be wholly ignored or passed over. Hereto fore, Richmond IIIII was little known beyond its immediate vicinity; but such shall not be the case in future. (4) A general feeling provails both in the City and County, that the time has arrived when the County of York should be separated from the City of Toronto for judicial purposes. We might easily adduce numerous arguments in favor of such a separation, but it is not necessary to our purpose now to do so, and besides the propriety of the measure is not questioned. (5.)

The matter chiefly to be considered is a suitable sight for the future Capital of the County. And what place so adapted for such a purpose as Richmond Hill? (6.) There can be no question that this village will be the place chosen. Here the County Buildings, we have no doubt will be ere long erected. There is no other place so easily accessible from all points of the County. (7.) In short, when the question comes to be decided, there is no other place that can for a moment compete with us. We are aware that there are numerous competiters for the distinction, but all of them labor under the disadvantage of being situated near the verge of the County. New market or Stouffville, will not consent to go to Weston or Pine Grove ; neither will the two latter agree to go to the former. But Richmond Hill will answer for all (8) The matter is only one of time. We have no fears of what the result will be.

1. Now, Mr. Gazette, that depends upon the size of the circle you draw. The qual-Incation of the sentence, "surrounding Totonio," is very cleverly done.

or in a fortain benighted parto Richmond Hill, while it would be somesincerely, we thought our contemporary bet-County. Besides the distance Richmond Hill is from the Railroad will be another objection that all the "healthy" and "fertile" country intervening will never overcome.

4. There, you have let the " cat out of the bag" now. One minute you state, with Play's" epistle. He says-" Newmarket a flourish of trumphets, that Richmond Hill has always acted the part of a usurper." is the most " Central Town" in the County | Again, " I might as well remark that the in of York, and the next positively affirm that | habitants of this Township are very thankthe Town aforesaid was " little known be- ful to get rid of Newmarket, as it always yond its immediate vicinity." .Come, come, got the lion's share, and was built up at the Mr. Gazette, that's drubing it on a little too expense of the Township." thick. However, we have the comforting et with them. For assurance that hereafter he will-

Tell of her merits-and speak of her worth,

And through the Gazette, tell of ber birth. 6. We grant the remark "that a general fal Committee of the Newmarket Me- feeling" of separation provails; but we changes inchare, takes places on Monday have yet to learn that the Reeves and Deputy Reeves of the County-however strongly we may personally feel on the matter-are in favor of changing the County Town. So far from it being a fact, in reference to the desirableness of changing the County Town, we believe that only two Representatives in the whole County were favorable to such a project-where the whole Council were determined upon separation. We write from individual and personal enquriy, and know what we state to be true. During the past four years we have strongly urged the separation, knowing full well that the other evils about the distance to the County Town, &c., would naturally correct themselves, and that in case of change, Newmarket had nothing to fear-particularly when we considered that " Ricdmond Hill occupied the most favorable position of any of the numerous villages surrounding Toronto," and that that "Town" was " little known beyond its immediate vicinity."

6. Why, Aurora, Newmarket, Holland Landing or Sharon. Either of these places are as well if not better situated than the "Town" proposed by the Gazette. He says-" what place so adapted for such a purpose as Richmond Hill 1" It is "favorably situated"-like any other farming community-it is as near "central," as fifteen to forty-and "little known," - therefore, concludes our confreer, it ought to be the County Town, in order that its fame may be spread over the length and breadth of the County, at least, in which it is " so favorably

7. Hear the Gazette again-" here the County Buildings, we have no doubt, will be are long arcotal it was in imagination ! Perhaps you have all the officers picked out, such as Sheriff, Registrar, Clerk of the Peace,

&c. Just favor us with a list, please: we would like to be in the secret. As to the place being " so ensily accessable," if going by the Railroad and tramping across two or three concessions on foot is " easily accessible," then that point is granted on the one side; and on the other, by the way of Yonge Street, to gain admittance, the inhabitants have to enter through " gates," the same as to any other well regulated forms.

8. Now, Mr. Gazette, " come let us rea son together." Did it never occur to you, that if ever another location for a County Town was sought after in this County, that the North Riding of York would make an effort to be set off in a separate Municipality for County purposes 1 If not, allow us to inform you that such will be the case. "The matter is only one of time." North York, with perhaps the addition of West Gwillimbury Township, would make a wealthy, populous and intelligent County; and past experience teaches the ratepayers this important lesson, that the longer they stand connected with the frontier Townships the heavier become their burdens. If they have again to be taxed for County Buildings, we can assure our colemporary they will take good care to have them located in their midst. " We have no fears of what the result will be."

Now, we openly affirm that the man capable of making statements like the above, under the garb of seeking "fair play" or "justice," must either be a knave or a fool -perhaps both, for nught we know. So far from Newmarket acting the part of an usurp er, we affirm, without fear of successful contradiction, that the people never got their just due. During the past three years this Village has contributed one-eighth of the Township Assessment alone; beside the enormous amounts contributed by way of license fees, fines, &c. The present year 2nd this village will pay into the Township Trea- 3rd sury between $500 and $600, and what have we in return,-nbout £35. In reference to "Fair Play's" remark that the Era is "flartman's organ," we have to reply, that that is a cant saying only made use of by unprincipled demagogues and heartless politicians, who have failed to injure the circulation of the Era on legitimate grounds.

He says " Newmarket was built up at the expense of the Township." This certainly will be news to the people here. The chief part of our trade comes from the Townships to the North and West; how it can be said 2nd that the place has been built up at the expense of the Township is therefore a mystery. He tells the renders of the Gazette that large sums are yearly expended to re- 3rd pair our roads; but he had not the mauliness or fair play to tell them that we contributed about two thirds more than was rereceived. Some of the finest were on the table of the house in the township of Scott, where I stopped I think I ever saw. There is a body of excellent land in the N. PURSER'S REPORT.

The Empire City, Captain John McGowan, left her wharf at Norfolk, Ga., at 104 A. M., on the 18th, for this port. She had been victualled and coaled, during the previous two days, for a thorough cruise in search of the missing steamer; however, none on board felt any misgiving. But on the day of appointed departure, at 5 A. M., a pilot-boat came up from outside, anchored in the stream near us the announcement of the total loss of the Cen ring the late severe gale, carrying down with her most of her officers and creir, pearly, 400

It was likewise understood that all the women and children, some of the latter infants in all fifty six in number, had been saved in the steamers boats, before she sunk, and put on board the brig Marine of Boston. " Sir," said our informant, " fire hundred men, with death yawning before them at any moment, stood solid as a reck, nor made a movement for the boats, until the woman and children bad been all safely transported to the brig-after which about forty of the crew and male passengers, in a few trips, reached the latter ves-

How many questions are still unsettled in the practice as well as the science of agriculture ! For, irstance, what variety of potatoe, if any, escapes the rot? What mode of culture, and what character and condition of soil can be relied upon to ward off the disease? After the experience of the present season, is it prudent to give much attention to this crop ? If not what are the best substitutes? The views elicited at a meeting of the most intelligent farmers of the country upon such points as these, and faithfully reported by the press, would, no doubt, prevent many from repeating to the " weevil." But the remedy-that which is of most importance to the actual wheat-grower-is, we apprehend, yet to be discovered and made known. The meeting at Brantford affords an excellent opportunity for comparing notes on this subject, and devising plans for the future. Is it true that some varieties of wheat escape the attacks of the Midge, and which are they ? If fall wheat were abandoned for one or two seasons, and only spring wheat cultivated, what would be the probable effect ? What say farmers from those districts where little else than spring wheat is grown now?
